Corporate fundraising pack

WHO ARE SURVIVORS' NETWORK?

We are the Rape Crisis Centre for Sussex and believe that no one should be alone when they have experiences of sexual violence and abuse. We listen to, support and believe survivors of all ages and genders.

WHY SHOULD YOU SUPPORT SURVIVORS OF SEXUAL VIOLENCE?

In the age of the #MeToo movement, we are increasingly aware of the high rates of sexual violence and harassment that people, particularly women, encounter in their day-to-day life. That includes in the workplace.

By supporting our charity, you can:

- Play a clear role in tackling this culture, ensuring that your colleagues and staff feel safe and supported.
 - Build team cohesion through group fundraising and challenge events.
 - Discover new audiences through positive PR.

OUR SERVICES

THE CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSON'S SERVICE

It can be difficult to go through sexual abuse or assault, no matter how old you are, but when you are under 18 there may be particular things you are worried about. The Children and Young Person's service is made up of a group of specialist workers who understand that it takes courage to reach out and ask for help. They will respond with kindness and without judgement, listening to survivors and what they need.

HELPLINE & EMAIL SERVICE

Our helpline & email service offer open-ended emotional support and signposting to other support services. Our Welcome Team will listen to, believe and support everyone who gets in touch.

ADULT ISVA SERVICE

Our Adult Independent Sexual Violence Advisors (ISVAs) provide information and support for people who have experienced sexual violence or abuse, no matter when it happened. Their main focus is around the criminal justice process. This might include but is not limited to:

- Talking through reporting options.
- Support with communication with the police.
- Support in the lead up to a trial.

They can also help with passing anonymous information to the Police and offer advocacy around other issues relating to the offence, such as housing, sexual health follow-up, employment and study, and accessing counselling.

TRAINING

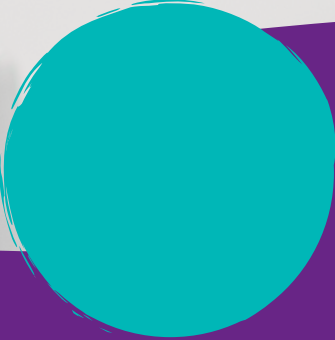

We provide training on the prevalence and realities of sexual violence and its effects on survivors, as well as consultancy support to organisations and businesses. Our training and consultancy is expertly delivered, trauma-informed and aims to embed an intersectional understanding of feminism.

GROUP WORK

We try to offer as many different kinds of support as possible as an organisation, so some of our groups are art based, some discussion, and some are more physical such as yoga.

THERAPY SERVICE

Our Therapy Service provides a safe and non-judgmental space to explore and understand ones experiences and their impact. Survivors are able to be open and honest about their feelings in a way that isn't always possible with friends, family and supporters.

EMPLOYEE FUNDRAISING

There are lots of ways that your staff can get involved with raising funds for our cause. From challenge events and bake sales to dress down days, employee fundraising can help with team-building and creates a strong emotional connection for staff between their work and what they feel is important in the world. We can help with suggestions for activities and access to places on local challenge events!

PAYROLL GIVING

Payroll Giving is a scheme that enables your employees to donate straight from their gross salary (before tax is deducted), and to receive immediate tax relief. Some companies match their staff donations up to a certain sum, while others simply build the option for payroll giving in to their systems, encouraging their staff to be charitable and making it as easy for them as possible!

● CAUSE-RELATED MARKETING

Connecting your products to a cause increases trust in the company while doing a good deed! With cause related marketing, you can choose to donate a percentage of proceeds from a specific product, encourage customers to donate at point-of-sale, or work with us on a product for a specific time-frame (for example International Women's Day in March).

CHARITY OF THE YEAR

Choosing one charity for the year can help to focus the interests and engagement of your staff, build a relationship between your business and our charity and generate great news pieces demonstrating your corporate social responsibility. We can set fundraising goals together, look at ways that we can support each other and work on innovative and fun ways to fundraise across your business.
